Imagine going to work knowing that what you do each day positively influences the lives of individuals and families in your community.

What you'll do:

- Oversee the day to day operations of all wellness and group exercise programming including staffing, ordering and maintenance of equipment, cleanliness and cleaning schedules, and inventory management.
- Recruit, train, schedule, supervise, develop and track certifications of staff to deliver high quality programs and services that respond to member needs.
- Manage the development, promotion and delivery of high quality programs that are responsive to member needs.
- Produce an annual budget that is aggressive but attainable. Maintain your programs within this budget.
- Manage and develop programs that are specific to the community and age appropriate including but not limited to Healthy Kids Day, wellness classes, group exercise classes, for-fee programming, etc.
- Be prepared to teach all classes in your area of responsibility and support staff in providing high quality programming and classes.
- Conduct staff meetings, with each program area, either monthly or every session. Provide notes and attendance to document.

What you need to succeed:

- Bachelor of Science Degree in Exercise Physiology or related field, 1-3 years practical experience in a health and fitness related position, or have a comparable level of expertise, CPR Pro Rescuer, First Aid and Oxygen certification.
- YMCA USA Healthy Lifestyle Principles within six months and preferably YMCA Foundations of Group Exercise within one year.
- Current national certifications in personal training.
- Ability to relate to a diverse age and cultural membership.
- Demonstrated supervisory experience, fiscal management experience and proven ability to manage successful programs.

Some benefits and perks of working at the Y:

Flexible work schedule, a free family membership, discounted programming, participation in the Y Retirement Fund, health and wellness benefits, and opportunities for continuing education and professional training and development.
